

XM radio is just like the internet. It is a paid service offered by a private company. I love my XM radio and just like the internet I do not believe the Government should interfere with this service. The Lobbyists, (as the government knows) will lobby against anything. Just to be heard. These are the people that have never experienced the luxury of XM radio.